

U.S. Classic Meet Set for Rochester on AUGUST 7, 1999

INDIANAPOLIS - One hundred twenty of America's elite female gymnasts are expected to gather in Rochester, N.Y., to compete in the 1999 U.S. Classic, to be held in the Blue Cross Arena at the War Memorial August 7. The event will be organized and hosted by The Gymnastics Training Center of Rochester.

The Classic is a key event in a year that includes the World Championships in Tianjin, China. The event in Rochester is the final opportunity to qualify for the 1999 John Hancock U.S. Gymnastics Championships, to be held in Sacramento, Calif., August 25-28. From there, the top 16 advance to the World Team Trials in Kansas City, MO., Sept. 15-18. That meet will be used to help select the six women who will represent the USA at the World Championships in China, the qualifying meet for the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Tickets are priced from $7-$27. A "Festival" pass also is being offered, with admission to all practices and competitions for only $32. A portion of the proceeds from ticket sales will help support Rochester's Special Olympic Gymnastics Team, which will compete at the Special Olympics World Games in North Carolina in July. For more information or to request a ticket form, contact The Gymnastics Training Center at 716-388-8686.
